

Selkirk Rex

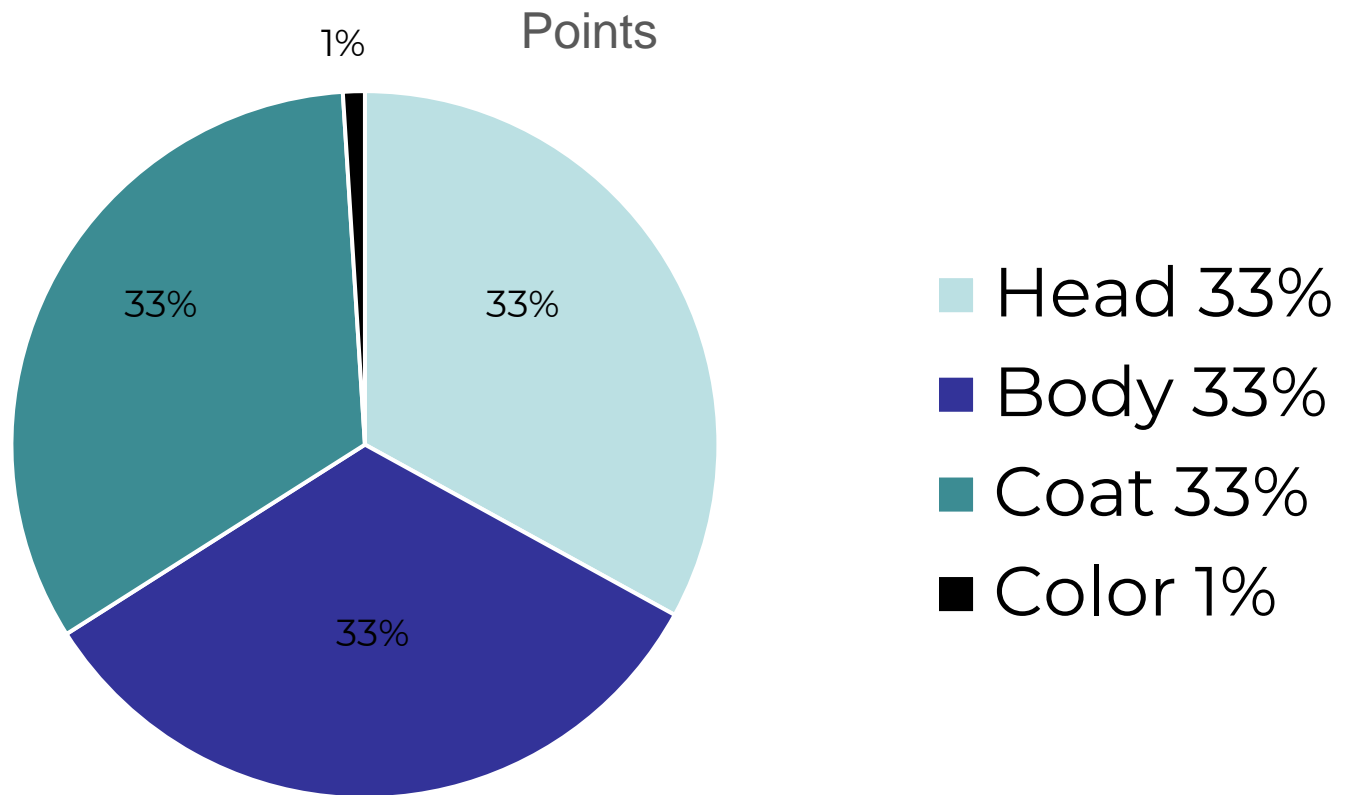

Essence of the Selkirk Rex

- Medium to large cat with heavy boning giving the cat surprising weight and an impression of power.
- An active cat with a sweet and endearing personality.
- The gently curled coat adds to the unique look

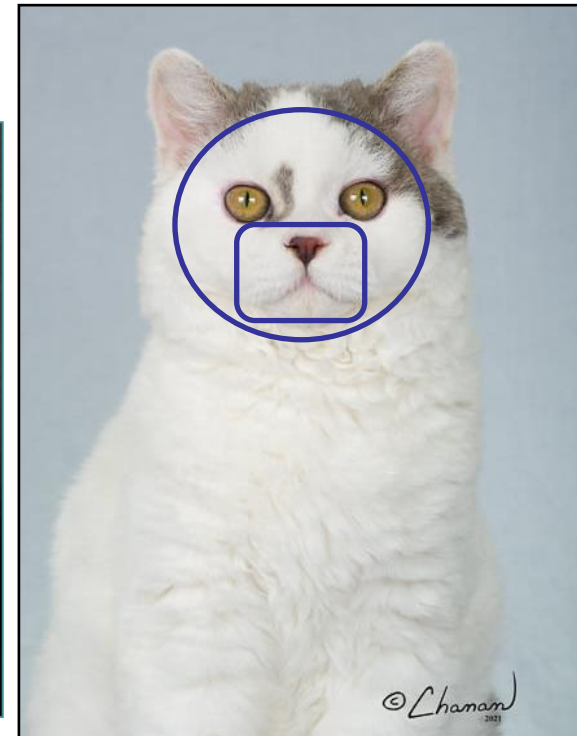

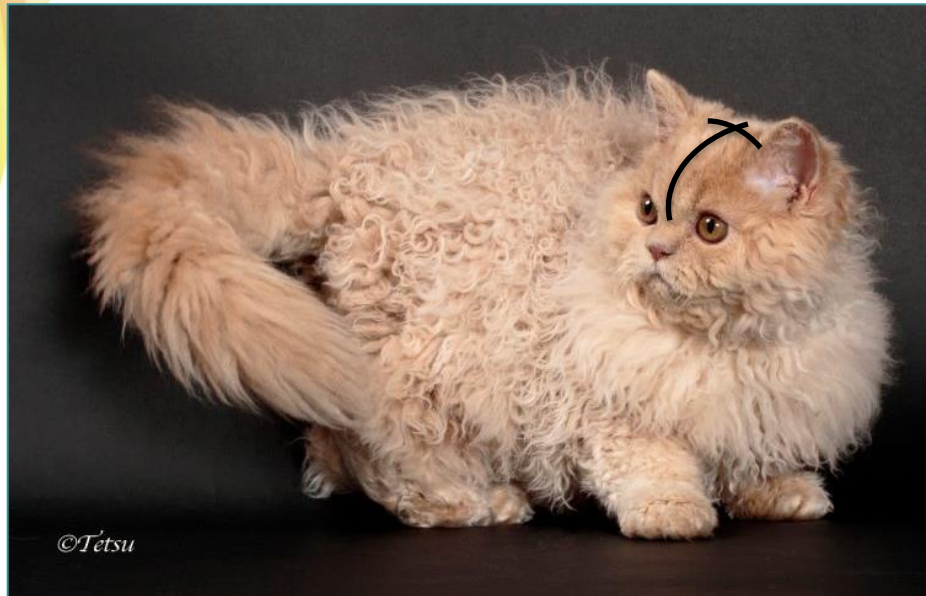

Point Breakdown

Head

Skull:

- Round underlying bone structure
- No flat planes, broad, full-cheeked
- Round & smooth in all directions
- Forehead should not be flat

Head

- Profile: nose stop, downward slant with convex curve
- Chin: firm, well-developed
- Ears: medium, broad at base, set well apart. Curly furnishings

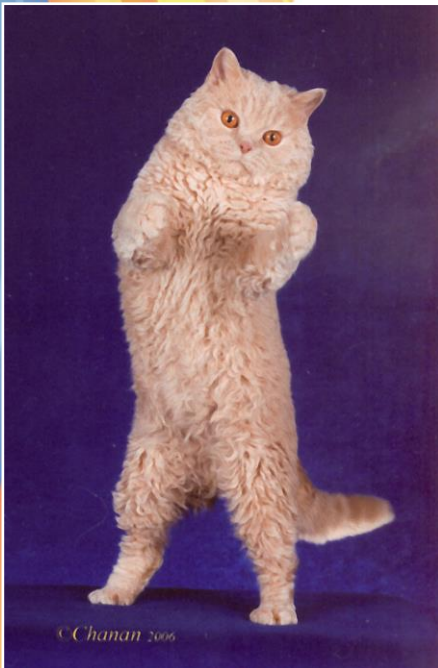

Eyes

- Large, rounded, set well apart
- Outside corner of eyes set slightly higher than inner corner

Body

- Torso medium to large, more rectangular than square, not long
- Back straight, shoulders and hips appear same width
- Heavy boned, impression of power and being well balanced.
- Legs are medium to long. Feet are large, round and firm
- Tail medium length, heavy at base, neither blunt nor pointed at tip

Coat

Longhair Curl

- Random, unstructured coat arranged in loose, individual curls
- Curls appear in “clumps” or “ringlets” rather than all-over wave
- Soft, full, dense, may stand out from body

Coat

Shorthair Curl

- Random, unstructured coat arranged in loose, individual curls
- Curls appear to be in “clumps”
- Dense, full, soft, plushy texture
- Stands out from the body

Color

- Color is only one (1) point and includes eye color
- Any genetically possible color or combination of colors is allowed

Penalize/Disqualify

Penalize

- Excessive cobbiness
- Sleek Oriental appearance

Disqualify

- Extreme nose break
- Lack of visible muzzle
- Malocclusion
- Tail kinks
- Crossed Eyes
- No evidence of curl
- Obvious physical deformities